

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, November 16. 1703.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Nov. 16.

Vienna, November 5.

AN Express is arriv'd from Turin, with the Ratification of the Treaty concluded between the Emperor and the Duke of Savoy. 'Tis said his Royal Highness will declare War against France, as soon as any Succours of Imperial Troops shall arrive in Piemont. Strict Search is made in this City after all French and Bavarian Spies; And our Bishop has commanded some Monks of a certain Order to depart hence. Prince Eugene of Savoy is not yet gone to Italy, but 'tis said he will certainly go in a little time. Great diligence is used to raise 20000 Recruits against the next Spring, half of them are to be ready by the end of February, and the rest by April. The Emperor has appointed the Count of Ottingen, General Heister, and the Heer Weberg, to administer the Government of Tyrol; and they are directed to make strict Inquiry after the Persons that in any manner contributed to the Progress made by the Elector of Bavaria on his first Irruption into that Country. Count Caroli, who lately perform'd some good Service against the Hungarian Rebels, is gone over to them; some say the Imperial Court had given him some Disgust, others that his Wife and Children were in the Hands of the Rebels. 170 Baggage Horses belonging to the King of the Romans, are sent to Hungary to be employ'd in drawing the Artillery. The young Count of Traun having carried away the Daughter of the Count of Altheim who is but Thirteen Years old, the Emperor has set forth an Edict, empowering the Parents of Girls of her Age, who shall willingly suffer themselves to be stolen, to disinherit them. An Express is arriv'd from Hungary, with the News that on the 31st of last Month the Count de Schlick took by Assault the Town of Devents: All the Rebels that were in the Place were either put to the Sword or made Prisoners of War, except the Governour named Oskay, formerly a Corporal in the Regiment of Forgats, who found means to make his Escape. His Secretary was found in the Town, and has promis'd voluntarily to make great Discoveries. Our Men found 12 Pieces of Cannon in the Place and a considerable Booty, which the Rebels had got from the neighbouring Country.

Passau, November 5. Part of the Danish Troops that have lain most of the Campaign in and about this Place, is order'd to the Borders of Upper Austria there to be canton'd this Winter; And nine Battallions of them remain here and in our Neighbourhood. A great Magazine is making here. On the 31st of last Month the Siege of Kuffstein was very far advanc'd, and all things made ready for a general Assault. In the Wood of Neuburg not far from hence, lye 4 Battallians of Bavarians.

From the Rotterdam Gazette, dated Nov. 15.

Paris, Nov. 5. We have Advice from Madrid, that on the 28th of last Month Prince Tserclaes de Tilly was to take a Review of 20000 Men Foot and Horse near Badajoz: That a Body of 5 or 6000 Men is drawing together in Galicia: And that 2000 others are marching from Andalousia towards Estramadura. They likewise tell us, that in case of a Rupture with Portugal, 10 Battallions of Foot and 2 Regiments of Dragoons will move towards Galicia from Bayonne, with some other Spanish Troops drawn out of Biscay. The Ambassador of Venice had 2 days ago a long Audience of the King at Versailles, and presented to his Majesty a Letter from the Doge. Last Week 2 Couriers arriv'd from Rome, who were immediately dispatch'd back again, from which 'tis conjectur'd there is some Treaty upon the Anvil in Italy.

Breda, November 8. Yesterday 6 Squadrons came in here, viz. 2 of the Regiment of Lumley, 2 of that of Wood, and one of that of Cadogan; together with one Battallion of the Regiment of How, and one of that of Hamilton: The English Train of Artillery is likewise arriv'd here.

Dublin, November 3. Yesterday Mr. Ludlow (according to Order) reported from the Committee of the whole House, appointed to consider of ways and means, for raising the Supply granted to Her Majesty, that they were come to several Resolutions, which were read and agreed to, and are as follows. Resolved, That it is the Opinion of the Committee, that such Debt as shall appear to be due to the Nation, shall be part of the 150000 l. granted to Her Majesty. That the Half Years Quit Rent which became due at Michaelmas 1703, amounting to 29000 l. is such a Debt due to the Nation as ought to be taken and reckon'd as part of the 150000 l. granted to Her Majesty: And that there is a further Debt of 2213 l. 4 s. 11 d. due to the Nation, which ought to be taken and reckon'd as part of the 150000 l. granted to Her Majesty.

Kinsale, November 5. 'On Wednesday last arriv'd the Elizabeth, David Roberts Master, from New-England, laden with Oyl, Logwood, Molosses, &c. and bound for London. The Master reports, that a little before he came away a Party of Indians came down upon the English and surpriz'd and kill'd 200 Persons. Whereupon 1000 Men were drawn together and march'd against them, but the Indians made their retreat so expeditiously that they could not be overtaken.

Falmouth, November 11. This day sail'd 4 Dutch Privateers with 5 Prizes, one of which is a French Privateer of 20 Guns; as also about 30 Coasters which took the Opportunity of their Convoy.

Plymouth, Nov. 12. This day came in Her Majesty's Ship the Bedford, who left the Grand Fleet a Fortnight since at the Straits mouth, directing their Course for England, and we expect their Arrival in two or three days. Last Night was lanch'd at our our Dock Her Majesty's Ship the Rupert a Third Rate.

Cowes, Nov. 13. Yesterday was sent in here by a Dutch Caper a small French Vessel laden with Brandy taken out of five others off of Guernsey. A small Frigate of Her Majesty's, supposed an Express, is gone through this Road just now from the Westward, with all the Sail she could make.
